Cross-Training for Leaders of Emergent Jewish Communities

November 11-13, 2018

Pearlstone Jewish Retreat Center
Reisterstown, Maryland

Grow your network, expand your leadership, and gain inspiration! Join one of these affinity tracks:

- New Spiritual Communities
- Next Gen Engagement
- Jewish Learning/Spirituality
- Boomer Engagement

Each affinity track will include up to 18 leaders working in one of the above-mentioned sectors from different communities around North America. Participants will also meet across tracks for meals, singing, spiritual gatherings and learning together.

An unparalleled opportunity to enhance your skills with Jewish creatives from around North America

- NETWORKING and IDEA SHARING with a community of like-minded peers
- SKILL BUILDING to help you address pressing leadership and organizational challenges, and support you in creating more sustainable organizations
- SHARED EXPERIENCES to inspire you through worship, leadership and celebration

KENISSA NETWORK MISSION

Kenissa: Communities of Meaning Network connects individuals who are leading contemporary efforts to re-define Jewish life. The Kenissa Network identifies and convenes leaders of new organizations and communities and creates a capacity building network to help these emerging communities of meaning thrive. Communities of meaning are networks of individuals that are inspired by an idea or a practice that enriches their lives and/or significantly improves conditions in the world for others.
